

Support, information, advice: The Kidney Care Community is here for you

The Kidney Care Community provides information and inspiration for anyone affected by chronic kidney disease. Ask questions, share stories, and make meaningful connections with others going through similar experiences.

- /// Browse topics and learn about eating well, exercise, travel, treatment options, and more.
- /// Find resources to support people on dialysis and living with kidney disease, including caregivers and families.
- /// Ask questions and engage in discussions on the topics that interest you.
- /// Connect with Community members one-on-one.
- /// Find support and share your personal Thrive On story.
